Our task in the present is to live as resurrection people in between Easter and the final day, with our Christian life...as a sign of the first and a foretaste of the second.

Please pray:

For those who began a relationship with God. Ask God to help them find a healthy church and grow in their understanding of God.

For the people who took booklets wanting to know more about Jesus. Thank God for the work He is doing to pursue them.

Over Easter weekend, Marc and I had the opportunity to share the gospel with 1,200 people during 3 Easter outreaches. During the show Marc used a broken vase to illustrate how God restored his life and wants to restore everyone's lives.

Over 45 people raised their hand to say they prayed with Marc to begin a relationship with God. And hundreds more asked us for booklets explaining Jesus' story.

Our favorite show was at Restore Orlando, a community center that plans "quality educational and spiritual experiences for low income children." Some of the kids were so excited they arrived 2 hours early. While waiting for the show to start and during the magic tricks, the kids were fidgety and noisy like normal kids are.

But when we started talking about Jesus, it suddenly became silent. Everyone sat perfectly still. I have never seen a group of people lean in so intent on hearing every word. It was a holy moment.

It is breath taking to be there when God moves. Because the Restore Orlando show was the smallest one we did, we didn't anticipate it as much. But when we left, we cried on the way home. Thank you God!

We are so grateful for your prayers and gifts. Your partnership enables us to share Jesus' story. Together, with you we are a part of God's mission to "To bring good news to the afflicted; bind up the brokenhearted, to proclaim liberty to captives and freedom to prisoners" (Isaiah 61:1).

He has risen! Love,

What a difference a year makes! Last year and this year we asked Mrs. Bright (Campus Crusade for Christ's co-founder) to take an Easter picture with us. She is an amazing woman whose travel schedule makes me tired thinking about it. I thought it was neat to see how much Annada had grown.

Annada's Arena

Easter Egg Hunting

This was Annada's first year of Easter egg hunting eligibility, so Marc wanted to make sure she was ready. Everyday after work, he would put cheerios in some eggs and hide them for Annada to find. She loved it!

A couple of days before the hunt, Marc took her outside for some practice. When they first started hunting, Annada would pick up an egg and a wood chip and then wander around happily.

During the official hunt, Annada knew just what to do. There was a 10-egg limit for each kid. Annada went to town loading up her basket. Marc had never taught her to hold back, so when she wasn't looking he would throw eggs out of her basket.

Pretty soon, she stopped long enough to see what was in an egg. What? Candy? This is way better than cheerios!
