Dear friends-

A few weeks ago I sat in a meeting as some of our Orlando Summer Project interns presented what God had done in the last 10 weeks.

As the women's director, it was hard not to break down in tears. These students were sharing what I had been praying for them since last November: they had learned that God loved them, how to love others and had plans for returning home and sharing that love on campus and beyond. Amen!

There is no way we could have done this summer without you. Thank you so much for your prayers. Marc and I feel like we have just left a spiritual whirlwind. We believe your partnership with us makes an eternal difference.

We have invested intensely in these students. Life is hard on everyone, and especially as leaders, our interns needed someone to care deeply about them.

To show you what I mean, please read this e-mail I received from Daniel, an OSP intern Marc really connected with:

"My dad left my mom about a month ago. He has always been a Christian man of integrity, so it is very sad and has made my last year the hardest of my life.

It has blessed my life tremendously that the men here are open and honest about their lives. They don't mind sharing their weaknesses and how God has sustained them through hard things.

Many of them have taken the time to speak truth into my life, and that is what I long for so much right now. I have had to shoulder the burdens for my family this past year, and it's nice to be in an environment where I can just be myself and I'm allowed to be honest and fail sometimes."

Thank you for investing in students like Daniel with us.

In Christ,

Evangeline & Marc

We are coming to Omaha October 3rd through the 22. (Because of a critical computer upgrade, Marc has to go back to Orlando on the 14th.)

We would love to see you if you are in town! If you want to get together, please give us a call at (402) 598-5684 or e-mail me at evangeline.vergo@ccci.org. Thanks!

Pregnancy update: 26 Weeks! (Due Dec. 25th)

Thank you so much for celebrating our baby girl with us. Every prayer, card, e-mail and present we've received is like a long distance hug.

I am feeling great (no more morning sickness!) and love getting kicked! Our little girl is getting stronger and can even wake me up at night now with her gymnastics. She is approximately 14 inches long and weighs a pound and a half.

I realized I'm preparing to be a mom like I prepared for college—and I've got over 10 more books on hold at the library!

Please pray with us that we would get to hold this baby, healthy and thriving, in December.
