Please Pray:

- For our friend and co-worker, Kristin Joy Woodard. Kristin was diagnosed with liver cancer for the third time. The chemo treatments are destroying her platelets. Please pray God will heal her and that a perfect platelet donor will be found soon.

Preview Weekend is a lot of fun. But we have a serious goal. Campus Crusade desperately needs more missionaries with technical skills (Mt 9:38).

So while we laugh with the students at Downtown Disney, we are also giving them a chance to ask tough questions about support raising or the application process.

So far, 2 out of the 6 students Marc and I hosted have already filled out an application to join Campus Crusade!

“I’ve spent nearly four years in college as a Computer Engineering major with no idea of what I was going to do after school. Leading up to this weekend, I’d been going through a lot of growth and self-reflection, and I spent a lot of time in prayer and the Word trying to figure out what God has planned for my life. Now I believe I have my answer .” Tim Russell, Preview Weekend 08

Preview Weekend is especially fun for Marc and I because it is a warm-up for Orlando Summer Project (OSP). It is amazing what God does in three days. And it reminds us of what God can do in 10 weeks during OSP.

So far Eric (my co-director) and I have accepted 22 college students for OSP and will be working with 15 more interns from Wycliffe Bible Translators. Please continue to pray for these students as they ask God to provide $2,900 for their summer expenses. I’m already starting to love the women and am praying for God to work powerfully this summer.

Q: What happens when you take 40 college students, 3 days in Orlando and a crash course on being a missionary?

A: New missionaries!

6 years ago Marc and I went to Preview Weekend to decide if God was calling us to join Campus Crusade. (It worked!) As a 3rd Preview Weekend.

Thank you for your prayers.
